1. To introduce the Mentor for BCOM II 'C' and 'D' division
2. To introduce the Mentor-Mentee Programme to the students of BCOM II 'C' and 'D' division.
3. To talk about mentoring students on concerns pertaining to the mentees' health, families, and personal lives, as well as their academic issues.
4. To discuss participating in the Marketing Expo as an opportunity for experiential learning which would provides practical marketing experience.

The mentor, Dr. Ms. V K Purohit, gave a hearty welcome to the BCOM II 'C' & 'D' Division students for the Mentor-Mentee meeting. The students were first told by the mentor that Dr. Ms. V K Purohit will be the mentor for BCOM II classes "C" and "D." The mentor continued with explaining the students the objectives of the Mentor Mentee Programme. Then one-on-one questions concerning academic work, personal, family, and health difficulties, as well as any anxieties about the curriculum, examinations, etc., were asked to each student.

The mentor guided and deliberated with the mentees over the students' involvement in the Synergy Fest Marketing Expo, which will be held on the eve of Diwali, emphasizing the importance of experiential learning. Students' practical learning of marketing skills, development of an entrepreneurial mindset, and general improvement of their communication abilities will result from this.

The meeting came to an end with hopes for a fruitful hands-on learning experience.
