about the changes made in the Evaluation Pattern of Semester I due to COVID-19 Pandemic.

2.8. Approval for Prizes, Medals, Financial Assistance

The Member Secretary, Dr. S.D. Gothe informed about the cash prizes given to students for their outstanding achievements in the University examinations every academic year. He highly appreciated the generosity of the donors in funding the Prizes and Awards which motivates the students. But he also pointed out that the amount deposited by the donors is not commensurate to the present time. Hence, he suggested that there is a need to revise the amount of cash prizes and hence the bank deposits.

2.9 Seeking approval for implementing the Course Structure of the Second Year of various U. G. and P. G. courses

The Chairman of the Academic Council informed the members that the Course Structure of different subjects were given consent in the e-meetings of BOS. and by email. The departments concerned have kept the record of these meetings. She further proposed that the course structure prepared by various B.O.S. be given consent.

2.10 Any other item with the permission of the Chairman

The following points were suggested by the members-

1. Dr. Dixit suggested that a short-term Bridge course with credit points on Python programming should be started.
2. Dr. S. M. Todakari suggested that the eligibility rules for P.G. programmes should be reconsidered taking into account the future opportunities for students.
3. Dr. Mrs. N.V. Sathe suggested that the matter of 'equivalence' and the rules and regulations thereof should be reconsidered.
4. Dr. Gambhir put forward the suggestion that other than NSS activity, students should be given training in social service.
5. Finally, Hon. Shri. D.A. Kadadi advised the members to overcome the barriers of pandemic situation in Education related matters by implementing innovative and creative ideas and practices so that the students will not be at a loss. The members
